

1908, of Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Birds and Game," and to add an additional section, to be known as Section 35d, to immediately follow Section 35c.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 35, 35A and 36, as enacted by the January Session, 1906, and Sections 35b and 35c, as enacted by the January Session, 1908, of Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Birds and Game," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, and that an additional section, to be known as Section 35d, be added thereto, to immediately follow Section 35c, and to read as follows:

SEC. 35. No person shall shoot or in any manner catch, kill or have in their possession any quail, partridges, or rabbits during closed season of each year, or any woodcock between the first day of January and the first day of July next ensuing, or any dove between the first day of January and the first day of August ensuing, or any squirrel between the first day of December and the first day of September the next ensuing year, or any summer or wood duck between the first day of January and the first day of July next ensuing.

SEC. 35A. No person shall at any time sell or offer for sale to any merchant, broker, commission merchant or huckster, for the purpose of shipping out of said county or ship out of said county, or to receive for shipment out of said county, any quail, partridges, woodcock, dove, squirrel or rabbit; but any person traveling or going out of said county may carry with him or her as a part of their personal baggage not more than twelve quail or partridges, six rabbits, six woodcock, six squirrel and six doves at any one time; provided, that said game when so carried out of said county shall be carried in such a manner so as to disclose to the public the kind and quality of game so carried out; but in no event shall it be lawful to carry said game in any quantity or quantities out of said county for the purpose of sale; but nothing contained herein shall be construed or held to prevent or forbid any person killing any such birds or game from selling same to any person in this county for their private use, or for the purpose of resale within the county.

SEC. 35B. No person shall at any time in said county shoot at or kill any quail, partridge, woodcock or any kind of water fowl with any other kind of firearm or gun than such as is habitually raised at arms length to the shoulder.

SEC. 35C. No person shall at any time trap, net or ensnare any quail, partridge, woodcock or water fowl of any kind, or
